Wells Boots.
Grand View Hotel.
Boston Clothing House.
Go to Stern's East and West Las Vegas.
Chapman's Hall is completed.
Hopper Bros. do keep a good cigar.
The first snow of the season at noon yesterday.

The new moon reflects light for a short time in the evenings.

We understand, the family of Mr. Whitecomb is to start for Albuquerque to-day.

The Jewett house is doing a good business now. The house is actually crowded.

The gentleman, who borrowed Mr. Salazar's revised statutes will confer a favor by returning the same.

The masquerades, on the east side, were pronounced a great success. Some of the disguises were thin, however.

J. C. Robinson opposite to the Depot, East Las Vegas, is keeping a hotel that is constantly growing in popular favor.

Henry Bram's Sample Room, is the place for a good drink, and fine cigars he keeps the very best and don't for get it. Baca building. 85-1f.

Two or three weddings are on dick for the first of December, in the new town. Now every body guess, who the happy parties are.

Still the new goods keep rolling into the GAZETTE office. This will soon be the most complete printing office in the Territory.

Hutchinson & Co., our accomodating livery men in East Vegas has some splendid driving outfits and report business excellent.

G. W. Dickinson has a fine view of the Hot Springs, bath house, hotel and surroundings, litographed on letter paper and envelopes. It shows to advantage.

We are glad to learn, that R. C. Richmond, who has been sick for some weeks at Trinidad, is much better. The citizens of this place will hail his recovery with delight.

The merchants on the east side are bringing on their winter stocks of goods and from the vast number of dry-goods boxes that are being piled around they are bringing on a large supply.

Rev. John Wuart, Chaplain of the U. S. A., at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, was in town over Sunday. He held Divine Services in the Episcopal Church, on the east side, in the morning, and preached at the Grand View Hotel in the evening. The services were well attended.

A prominent business man of this city has just returned from the east where he has been engaged in buying goods. He reports business of all kinds better than has been known for a great number of years. The market is continually raising and times are continually growing easier.

Mr. Mathew Burns, of Hallowell, Maine, desires information concerning his son, John M. Burns, who worked for Frank Ogden, of this place, during this last spring and summer; but who started for Silver City or Arizona some time in July and has not been heard from since. Serious fears are entertained as to his fate. Any one knowing anything with reference to the young man referred to will confer a great favor by communicating with Mathew Burns, of Hallowell, Maine, or with this office.

The County Commissioners should have the streets cleared of all the loose stones, that do duty by rolling around in the streets, knocking people's wagons and hacks to pieces. The hackmen claim, and with reason too, that as they have to pay license for the privilege of running hacks, the streets ought to be kept clear of all obstructions. This is nothing more than fair and just and the commissioners should see to it that the streets are cleared of everything detrimental to the trade of the city.

PROMPT PAYMENT.

Hon. R. Romero of La Cueva returned from his trip to New York last Saturday. He was quite successful in obtaining the payment of the life insurance on the policy of his father, the Hon. Vicente Romero, deceased. The latter had his life insured in the New York Life Insurance Company for five thousand dollars. On the submission of the proofs of the death of Mr. Romero, the money called for by the policy was paid without a word. This was a wise provision which was promptly met.

Some Good Shooting.

A few days since Mr. P. G. Trone took a trip to the Los Alamos lakes and found wild water fowl exceedingly plenty. At three shots he succeeded in killing 12 geese and one duck. Five of the geese were killed at the first shot and when the flock flew the other barrel brought down seven. The geese were brought to town and left at the Restaurant of Mr. McKays where any one desiring, can have the pleasure of sampling them.

OLD LAS VEGAS SOCIAL CLUB.

The members of this club will meet this evening at 8 o'clock sharp at the office of T. Romero, Bros. & Son. All members are requested to be present.

The committee on city organization met at the Exchange hotel last evening with a half dozen city characters before them for discussion. The committee will act prudently and will not submit a charter to which any valid objection can be raised.

PERSONAL.

Judge Hubbell is not so well again. Eli Hilty has parted with his crutches.

N. C. Boles, proposes pushing further south.

Dr. I. S. Bryant will leave Las Vegas Dec. 1st, for a two months visit home.

Page Otero is doing Las Vegas.

Rev. Wuart went up to the Springs yesterday.

Mr. W. H. Hill and family arrived by Monday morning's train.

Messrs. J. Osgood and A. L. Mill of the engineer corps have been ordered to Pueblo.

H. H. Ballard, of Roswell, has subscribed for the GAZETTE to be sent east to friends.

Messrs. Terrill and Thurston having completed their work here took the train east last night.

Charley Farnum from Cabra Springs reports sheep in fine condition and plenty of pasture.

W. B. Stapp returned last night from Fort Stanton where he had to deliver cattle on contract to the Indian Agency.

Ex-Gov. Anthony of Kansas and Hon. Miguel A. Otero were among the prominent arrivals Sunday morning. They will be found at the Grand View.

Mr. and Mrs. Comfort and Mr. and Mrs. Swartz go to Bernalillo to-day. The grading forces have been moved down and it is more convenient for contractors.

The Atchison, Topeka & Santa F. railroad officials, who are on their way to San Diego, are registered at the Cosmopolitan. The party consists of Geo. B. Withur and Lucius G. Pratt, of Boston, and W. R. Morley of New Mexico. We learn that a party of Los Angeles will accompany them on the trip. -Morning, (Cal. Journal).

It is now reported that the A. T. & S. F. will put rec'in'g chair cars on the road. Any kind of a descent car is good enough for this part of the line.
